

---

Suspended on a cable 25 feet below the surface of the earth in an eighty foot circular well Herman Nybo, a popular young man of Luverne met death through poisonous gases. It seems that the drill had struck a rock and Mr. Nybo was being lowered to locate and remedy the trouble when the disaster occurred.

At the farmers' meeting Thursday