

Mrs. Julia Stevens, proprietor of a millinery store at Cooperstown, died Thursday morning after several months' illness from heart trouble. Mrs. Stevens was a widow and leaves four grown children. She with her husband was one of the pioneer residents of Cooperstown. The funeral took place Sunday.

Messrs. Jones O. M. Westley