

Rev. Gierke Married.

A pretty wedding took place at the Lutheran church in Niagara on November 23, when Miss Lydia Wolfgram of that place became the bride of Rev. William H. Gjerke of Binford, N. D. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Albert Gjerke of Niagara.

The bride wore a gown of white silk crepe de chine and her wedding veil was arranged in cap effect caught with a wreath of myrtle. She carried a bouquet of white roses. Misses Emma Gjerke, Hulda Strasburg and Ernma Eichorst, were the attendants of the bride and they wore gowns of pink, pale green and maize colored crepe de chine. Miss Edna Vogel acted as flower girl. The groom was attended by Herman Wolfgram, Fred Wolfgram and Arthur Vogel. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents and 80 people were present.

Rev and Mrs. Gjerke will spend their honeymoon in the twin cities and with relatives in Iowa. They will be at home at Binford, after January 1.

The Times extends congratulations.
