

Husel-Pfeifer.

Sentinel-Courier: A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Husel, south of town, last Tuesday afternoon, January 30, 1917, at 3 o'clock, when their daughter, Ina L., became the wife of Frank S. Pfeifer. The bride was charmingly dressed in white crepe de chine and carried a boquet of white roses. She was attended by her sister, Olva, who wore blue mesaline, and carried pink carnations. The groom wore the conventional black and was attended by his brother, Edward. The wedding took place under an arch beautifully decorated with white, the background being of ferns and carnations. Rev. Kleiden performed the ceremony.

After the ceremony, the guests were escorted to the dining room, nicely decorated in red, white and blue, and there sat down to an elaborate four-course dinner.

The bride is well known in this community, being the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Husel. She has spent all her life here and has successfully taught three terms in the rural schools.

The groom needs no introduction, being the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Pfeifer, east of town, and is well known and respected in this community.

The newly-weds leave today Thursday, for Montana, on a short wedding trip, after which they will return and go to farming on the farm the groom recently purchased in Helena township.

The following out-of-town guests were present at the wedding: Mr. and Mrs. Ben Pfeifer, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Kuntz, Mr. and Mrs. John Hovel and family, Elsie Pfeifer and Bennie Pfeifer, all of Jessie; Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Husel, of Binford.

The Sentinel-Courier, together with numerous friends, extends congratulations and best wishes.
