

Elliott-Simensen

Miss Mable Elliott who is well known in Binford, was married last week, Wednesday, at her home in Grandin to Carl O. Simensen. The following account of the wedding was taken from the Fargo Courier-News:

On Wednesday evening at 5 o'clock at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Elliott at Grandin, a very pretty wedding took place when their daughter, Miss Mable Irene Elliott, was united in marriage to Mr. Carl O. Simenson, who is cashier in the Grandin State bank. The ring ceremony was used and was carried by Irene Elliott, a neice of the bride, and the words which united these young people as man and wife were spoken by Rev. Chas. A. Macnamara the district superintendent, Fargo N. D. After the ceremony and reception the company numbering between 50 and 60, partook of a beautiful repast most tastefully prepared and served by a bevy of young ladies. The young couple will take an auto tour and will be absent from home a week or ten days. The hall and rooms of the home were tastefully decorated with flowers and festooned with bands of crepe paper.

The ceremony was performed under a beautiful bell which was suspended in the west room, Mr. Ed Anderson sang a solo as the wedding march began, entitled, "When Song Was Sweet." The wedding dress was white silk crepe de chine, trimmed with Venetian lace and pearls. She wore the conventional wedding veil of white bridal illusion. The going away dress was purple gabardine with hat to match. The bridesmaid Miss Irma V. Elliott, wore yellow crepe de chine trimmed with net and yellow rosebuds.

Guests at the wedding were as follows: Rev. C. A. and Mrs. Macnamara Mr. and Mrs. E. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Miller of Fargo, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hanson of Ada, Minn. Mr. and Mrs. Lenard Hanson and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hanson of Buxton, Mrs. Jones, Waukan Ill., Miss Patterson, Ada, Mrs. F. D. Cannon, Binford N. D., and Mrs. James Elliot, New England, N. D. The bride and groom will return to their own home at Grandin and start housekeeping. There were many very useful and costly presents from a very large circle of friends for the bride was born and has grown up to young womanhood in Grandin.
