

Addie School No. 2.

Every week we have a new motto. This week we have the following:
"I count this thing to be grandly true,
That a noble deed is a step toward God—
Lifting the soul from the common sod,
To a purer air and a broader view."
—Holland.

The seventh and eighth grades are now running a germination test with corn.

Several talks on the lives of favorite authors have been given during the past week by the following: Johnny and Mary Vangen, Randy Helland, Alice and Rosalie Amlie, and Lars Lunning.

Skating has been a part of our program these days.

Every pupil in the school has a mail box. Mail may be placed in these boxes any time during the day and all may get their mail during the last recess.

The following pictures are found on the bulletin board: President Wilson, Judges of the Supreme Court of the U. S., Pres. Worst, Newton D. Baker, and L. D. Brandeis.

The following pupils were perfect in spelling during the past week: Randy Helland, Alice and Rosalie Amlie.

The Minervian Literary society held their regular meeting Friday afternoon. The program follows:

Song by four members.

Dialog, "The Speech That Failed," by Alice Amlie, Mary and Johnny Vangen, Knut Dahl and Lars Lunning.

Song by Randy Helland and Johnny Vangen.

Public Question Box.

Reading by Rosalie Amlie.

Song by three girls.

The society was glad to welcome the following visitors: Misses Ida and Nellie Thune, Miss Alma Helland, Mrs. O. T. Helland, Mrs. John Vangen, Mrs. Paul Vangen, Mrs. H. Vangen, Miss Bertha Lochrem, Mr. Lindberg and Thomas Lunning.

Miss Annie Fuglaas, Teacher.