

ADDIE SCHOOD NOTES

A new pupil, Marie Braaten, enrolled Monday.

The eighth grade has been studying Whittier's "For An Autumn Festival."

A new organ was installed last Friday, and singing has now an added pleasure.

The sewing class was again organized last week and its members are busy making work bags.

Mornings are growing colder. The sun rises later, as a result we notice a tendency toward tardiness, and we do dislike tardy marks.

Those who have been neither absent nor tardy this last month are: Alma and Mabel Hanstad, Marget Hegwik, Agnes and Ernest Watne, Hugo and Mathilda Fiebiger. Jennie and Myrtle Olson have been absent one half day.—Bertha Skofstad, teacher.
