

Albert Alfson has decided to quit farming and is making announcement of an auction sale in this issue to be held next Thursday, Dec. 16. He will sell all his personal property except the threshing outfit. The ad will be found on the back page.

---