

delicious refreshments were served.

Emil Amundson was up from his farm in Lenora township Tuesday. Mr. Amundson has decided to have an auction sale of most of his personal property and will rent his land this year. He intends to devote his time to stock raising.

It may interest North Dakota