

atives.

The condition of Ludvig Amundson, who is confined in a hospital at Fargo, is improving. He is permitted to sit up for short periods, and last Saturday had his first meal since entering the hospital. He will be confined for a month yet.