

The new home talent play "Tompkin's Hired Man," is being rapidly mastered by those taking part, and with a few finishing touches here and there, will soon be ready for the first public appearance.

The play is today's Times on