

Manager Greenland has made an excellent improvement at the ball park in the erection of a wire netting extending from the grand stand along the first and third base lines for a distance of 150 feet. This was done to protect wind shields from being broken by batted balls. He will also put up a score board, in order to keep the crowd posted on the innings and scores for each team.