

Basket ball is becoming a very popular diversion in Binford, thanks to the efforts of the school teachers. They arranged with Mr. Boeckman to have the opera house fitted up for this purpose, and since this has been done, the fever is spreading to everyone. Several in town are quite proficient in playing the game, and as soon as some others have mastered the fine points a team will be organized and contests held with outside teams.