

No change was made in the personnel of the officers or directors of the First National bank, as a result of the stockholders meeting Tuesday. Business at the First National has shown a decided increase during the past year, which was gratifying to the stockholders.