

tend heartiest congratulations.

John Syverson, Olaf Burseth and Mrs. Charles Burseth of Coopers-town, and Carl E. Tallmadge of New England, this state, are here attending a meeting of the stockholders of the First State Bank. Up to the time of going to press no election had been held but it is certain that some change will be made in the personnel of the officers and directors.