

ANOTHER PLAY WILL BE GIVEN

A Four Act Comedy-Drama, "The Merry Cobbler" Will be Presented, March 17.

The Binford Dramatic club is busy rehearsing the play entitled "The Merry Cobbler," by J. A. Frazer. The characters have put in weeks of hard work mastering their parts and will be ready to present the play to the public on Friday evening, March 17.

Many plays have been given in Binford the past years, but we dare say "The Merry Cobbler" surpasses them all. The play is a comedy-drama in four acts. It has a good plot, with a strong "heart" interest, which, with an abundance of comedy and thrilling climaxes, combine to make it an excellent drama. The story combines the humorous with the sad, and from beginning to end the play is filled with pleasing and novel situations. Music and singing throughout the production is a good feature introduced in the entertainment.

If you want two hours of solid fun don't miss seeing this play. Keep the date in mind and be sure to come.

A St. Patrick's dance will be given after the show. The music will be furnished by the Binford Dance orchestra.

The synopsis of the play and the cast of characters is given below:

Franz von Altenheim—A light-hearted cobbler—John Norman.

Morris Holmes—An adventurer—F. C. Boeckman.

Col. Derrom—A leading lawyer—

Oscar Greenland.

I. L. Findham—A detective—C. E. Peterson.

Levee Bob—A bad negro—Iver Alm.

Mike Maloney—A police officer—H. B. Hanson.

Stella Derrom—The Colonel's daughter—Mrs. H. B. Hanson.

Mrs. Rafferty—A "poor lonely widdy woman"—Annie Kjelland.

Mrs. Holmes—An ill-used wife and mother—Mrs. F. C. Boeckman.

Rosalie—The banana girl—Ruth Alfson.

Carlotta—Stella's bosom friend—Nora Greenland.

Leila and Flossie, and their playmates—Little friends of the merry cobbler—Irene Pritz, Florence Greenland, Katherine Norman, Phyllis Peterson, Evelyn Alfson and Mildred Alfson.

SYNOPSIS.

Act I. The Cobbler Baron—Plotting for a fortune—Franz's birthday party—Stella meets her fate—The runaway horse—Franz rescues Stella.

Act II. The plotter at work—Franz as a healthy invalid—The babies and their boquet—Franz's courtship—The Colonel's wrath—Holmes' discomfiture.

Act III. Carlotta's party—Findham's fine work—Holmes anticipates triumph—Confronted by a wronged woman—Franz's stratagem—The kidnapers—"Dot's de kind of a sauerkraut I am."

Act IV. A big haul attempted—Ready for flight—Franz and Stella hear secrets—Gretchen, the accuser A villain unmasked—The Baron von Altenheim—Restored to a brother's arms—Wedding bells.

Teeth extracted and no pain. Fine gold crowns. Dr. Featherston, Thursday, March 23.