

The work of wiring up the houses for electric lights has been delayed a few days by the non-arrival of the wire from Minneapolis, but Mr. Hanson has received assurance that the material will be here soon. A crew of men has been engaged in making improvements at the garage where the plant will be installed.

Minneapolis Daily Journal