

FARMERS' CLUB ANNUAL PICNIC

Tuesday, June 27th, Is The Day Set Aside For Farmers' Annual Celebration.

The program for the annual picnic of the Binford Farmers' club has been completed, and the speakers who have consented to be present are prominent, and capable of handling the various subjects which have been chosen.

E. G. Quamme, of Finley, will be the principle speaker. The others on the program are Miss Julia O. Newton, who will discuss some phase of women's work, and O. A. Thompson, superintendent of the sub-station at Edgely, who will talk on some phase of agriculture or discuss trees, shrubbery and wind breaks.

F. G. Lewis, president of the club, will give the address of welcome.

An indoor base ball game will be played, and the Willow band will furnish the music for the day.

Everyone is invited to attend and bring their baskets for lunch at noon.
