

An over-heated stove pipe in the living rooms occupied by P. A. Overby, the tailor, caused some excitement yesterday, and but for the prompt work with hand chemicals, a disastrous fire might have resulted. Had the fire gotten sufficient headway, with the wind blowing as it was, the entire block would have been doomed.

Sutton Reporter: The new opera