

The dance given by the fire department last Friday evening was a very sociable affair. Sixty-two tickets were sold. This is not as many as the boys had hoped to sell, considering the purpose for which the dance was given. It is rather disappointing to the committee to receive a blunt refusal when asking for support for their organization. It looks to us as if some people have not the welfare of their town at heart as much as they profess. Notwithstanding that the treasury was not enriched to any appreciable extent, the boys find some solace in knowing that those who attended the dance had a very enjoyable time and will be boosters for the firemen in years to come. Mention of the doin's wouldn't be complete without referring to the supper provided at the Hub restaurant. "Some spread"

was the verdict of everybody. Mr. and Mrs. Shaw are culinary artists in every sense of the word. The orchestra was very liberal with their music.
