

The trustees of the Odd Fellows lodge of Binford have made arrangements with F. C. Boeckman, for a lease of rooms in the second story of the opera house, which have been used by them for lodge purposes. Some necessary improvements will be made. Electric lights have been installed this week, the walls will be kalsomined, the wood work painted, and things fixed up in general to make the rooms more attractive quarters. The two rear rooms will be fitted up for club rooms and it is proposed to lease these to the Commercial club.
