

LYCEUM COURSE FOR BINFORD

Midland Lyceum Course of Four Numbers Has Been Secured.

Binford will have a Lyceum course this winter. Arrangements have been made for a four number course and some of the best talent on the road has been secured.

The entertainments will be given far enough apart to stretch the course over the principle part of the winter. The first number has been dated on Tuesday, October 10, and will be the Stephany Concert company. The personnel of this company is Beatrice Stephany, coloratura soprano, Dorothy Bible, violiniste and Marie McAdoo, harpiste. It is a delightful little company of delightful little people with a delightful big program. The company furnishes an excellent variety of concert numbers, a "something different" treat.

The other numbers of the course include the University Four, Dec. 14. This company consists of four college-bred young women, of extended concert experience, in a delightful evening of instrumental music, quartettes, costume songs and readings.

Ash Davis, the cartoonist, will appear on Jan. 15. Mr. Davis is unique. He is three in one—cartoonist, lecturer and storyteller, so artistically blended as to make an ideal entertainer.

The last number is by Victoria Lynn, the entertainer, on Feb. 5. There is no better reader, or any more favorable known, than she in the central states, and not more than two others as well known.

Season tickets will be sold for the series at a reduction from the price charged singly for the entertainments.

It is not the purpose of those who have interested themselves in this course to make money from it but they have been obliged to give a heavy guarantee in order to secure these attractions and a liberal patronage is asked. Their desire to get a series of high class entertainment is a laudable one and should receive the support of all.
