

A number of new cement cross walks are being laid along the main street. There are five of them in all and they are a much needed improvement.