

The Beatrice Stephany Concert Co., the first number of the Midland Lyceum course, appeared at the opera house Tuesday evening, and was greeted by a large audience. The company is composed of three ladies, and each one is an artist. The various numbers were liberally applauded and repeated encores were responded to. The committee back of this venture feel encouraged over the support accorded them thru the purchase of season tickets and single admissions. Any balance, if there is any, at the completion of the course, will be left in a fund to apply on a similar course next season. The next number will be given on December 14. This company is the University Four, a quartette of young ladies in vocal and instrumental music, costume songs, etc.
