

room.

An unusual series of moving pictures has been contracted for by F. C. Boeckman, and will be shown at the opera house, commencing soon. Four of these, "Common Law," 7 reels, "Price She Paid," 7 reels, "Foolish Virgin", 6 reels, "Easiest Way," 8 reels, feature Clara Kimball Young; Norma Tallmudge is the star in "Panthea," 7 reels, "Law of Compensation," 6 reels, "Poppy," 8 reels: the "Argyle Case", 7 reels, and the "Silent Master," 7 reels, feature Robert Warwick; "Eternal Sin" 6 reels, features Florence Reed; and Kitty Gordon is the star in "Vera, the Medium," 5 reels. The "Argyle Case," will be shown Saturday evening. The dates for the others have not been set yet. Mr. Boeckman is endeavoring to give the public the best pictures that money can buy. These pictures have only been shown in the larger cities of the state this summer. Watch for further announcements and don't miss these shows.

---