

Improvements are being made at the postoffice and when completed Binford will have a very substantial postoffice building. A foundation is being put in and Postmaster Knapp contemplates other changes in the interior which will facilitate handling the mail.