

DAZEY HOSTESS TO REBEKAHS

Binford Selected for Annual Meeting of District Assembly Next Year.

The annual session of the district convention of the Rebekah lodge of the district was held at Dazey on Thursday. The meeting opened at 2:30 p. m., and was presided over by Miss James of Dazey, the towns represented being Valley City, Binford Courtenay and Dazey.

The first part of the afternoon committees were appointed to complete the work. Those appointed were as follows:

Resolutions—Mrs. Laing, Courtenay and Mesdames Lavery and Winkler, of Valley City.

Press—Mesdames Kennedy and Tolstad, of Valley City, and Miss Oppegaard, of Dazey.

Good of the Order—Mrs. M. E. Mason, of Valley City, and Mesdames Kelley and LaValley, of Dazey.

Examination—Mrs. Alice Mares of Wheatland, the state assembly president, and Mrs. Laing, of Courtenay.

Memorial—Miss James, of Dazey, Mrs. West, of Binford, and Mrs. M. R. Nelson, Valley City.

The ladies then adjourned until 8:30 when the evening session was called to order by the district president, Miss James.

The address of welcome was given by Miss Hattie Kelly, of Dazey, and was responded to by R. G. Hammerud, of Valley City.

Mrs. Laing of Courtenay then read a splendid paper on the work done in the order. Reports of the various committees were then read and accepted and the memorial committee voted to send letters of condolence to Sister Burrill, of Velva, who is state secretary of the Rebekah lodge also to Sister Gale of Valley City.

The initiation work was put on by the Binford Lodge, and following this officers were elected for the coming year. The new officers are:

President—Sister West of Binford.

Vice president—Sister Nelson, of Valley City.

Secretary—Sister Reid of Courtenay.

After the election the president then appointed the following officers:

Warden—Sister Evers of Binford.

Conductor—Sister Winker, of Valley City.

Inside Guardian—Sister Oppegaard, of Dazey.

Outside Guardian—Sister Bowe, of Binford.

Chaplain—Sister Kelly, of Dazey.

Installation of the newly-elected and appointed officers then took place.

An invitation was extended from the Binford lodge to meet with them next year and the invitation accepted with unanimous vote of thanks.

After this the ladies adjourned to the new Dazey hotel for the banquet.

Covers were laid for 61 and the tables were decorated in pink and green, the lodge colors, and dainty place cards marked each place.

Mrs. M. R. Nelson, of Valley City, acted as toastmistress, and toasts were responded to by several of the Rebekahs and brother Odd Fellows.

This closed one of the most pleasant sessions the district convention have ever held.
