

dry.

The supplies committee of the Red Cross society went to Cooperstown Tuesday afternoon to meet with the committee of that place to discuss business matters pertaining to that work. The ladies who went down were Mrs. J. R. Truscott, Mrs. Olof Burseth, and Mrs. F. G. Lewis. The chairman, Mrs. F. Ringlee, was unable to go on account of illness.