

Work, erecting an up to date water pumping station, with gasoline engine and all the modern conveniences was begun last week by employees the N. P. R. R. who were specially brought here for that purpose. The new plant will take the place of the wind-mill pump, now used to furnish water to the trains passing through this place.

Now and another sort of fly some.