

Elsewhere in today's Times appears the notice of the annual school election, which occurs on Tuesday, June 1. Two members are to be elected for a term of three years. The retiring members are Joseph Buchheit and Andrew Norstrum and both have stated to The Times that they do not desire re-election. It is important that competent men be chosen for the board of education, so give the matter some thought before casting your vote.