

many hours of conference thereon.

The board of education at their last meeting paid off $2000 of school bonds, leaving a balance of $4000 to be retired during the next ten years. The school law has been amended so that any if this amount can be paid in any year.