

School Notes...

Horace Ford enrolled in the eighth grade Monday.

In the spelling match of the seventh and eighth grades against the high school, Ruth Dahlin won.

A period was given to the painting of Jack-o-lanterns in the intermediate grades on Friday.

There were twenty-three perfect in attendance in the intermediate room during October.

The sixth grade has memorized the poem, "Maize, the Nation's Emblem."

Walter Arneson won in the second grade spelling down contest Thursday.

The third grade is memorizing "The Corn Song," by Whittier.

There were thirty-nine pupils perfect in attendance in the primary room the last month, and forty-two were present every day.

Thelma Bakken was a visitor on Monday.