

W. G. Tweed, Binford, N. D.

Another telephone meeting for the purpose of discussing ways and means of securing telephone service from the Red River Valley Telephone company, will be held in the opera house in Binford Saturday, March 4. We understand that the company is quite favorable to extending their lines into this territory. It is possible that some definite steps will be taken at this meeting.

F. G. Lewis has secured a contract