

A committee composed of E. A. Reszlaff, Louie Trostad, J. A. McCulloch, O. L. Anderson, E. E. Iverson and Oscar Greenland, to solicit stock for a new telephone company, met at the First National bank Monday afternoon to discuss matters of business. Considerable stock has already been subscribed with very little effort on the part of the solicitors, and there's no question but what more will be added when the solicitors make a thorough canvass of the proposed territory in which the system is to be operated. Application has been made for a charter.
