

Manager Brown, of the telephone company, informs The Times that as soon as the conditions in the spring permit, he will begin operations to remove some of the poles from Main street to the alley and cable the lines. His intention is to follow the alley south across the tracks, and, if possible, he will continue the work north of the central office, also. The people of Binford will be pleased over this move.