

The annual supper served by the ladies of the United Lutheran church last Thursday evening was a financial success, netting them $87.00. No sale of articles was held this fall except a crocheted bedspread, presented to the aid by Miss Tillie Rood, to be sold. This brought $11.00.