

Art M. Bjugstad, who caught for the Binford ball team the season of 1914, passed through here Tuesday, on his way to McHenry, to remain for a week on business matters. Art played with the Bowden team last year and had a successful season. He has had several offers for next year.