

F. G. Boeckman is having a booth constructed in the opera house entrance, the interior of which will be absolutely fire proof, to conform to the requirements of the insurance companies, when moving picture shows are in operation. The next movie show will be held Saturday evening.