

Little Miss Margeret Brodshaug, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ole Brodshaug, of McHenry, who makes her home with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Moore at Tolna, was taken suddenly ill last week, being poisoned from eating fruit. She recovered from the poisoning, however, but contracted a severe attack of pneumonia and has been very low. We learned today that she was out of danger.