

At the meeting of the band Monday evening, O. O. Brodshaug was presented with a handsome cornet case, a gift of the band members, in appreciation of the services the recipient has tendered the band. It is due to Mr. Brodshaug that Binford has a band and he has given much of his time to keep it in existence, and because of that, the members thought to reward him in a small way.

---