

Ernest Caniff and wife, who have been residing on the Hemerlin farm since last spring, departed last Saturday for New York state, where they will make their future home.