

Johnny Carrol, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Carrol, had a painful experience Monday. While playing with shells he cut one in two and then proceeded to light the powder, with the result that his hands and face were quite badly burned. Boys will be boys, and experience is the best teacher.