

not looney. But where's my hat?

W. J. Dalton went to the N. W. hospital at Moorhead Saturday and returned Monday but went back again. It was found when the XRay was used on Harold's arm that a small piece of bone was lodged in the socket. Word has not been received as yet just what procedure will be necessary.

It was with respect that we learned