

the physician in charge.

Sunday evening W. J. Dalton and family entertained a number of people at their home. Gus Sness with the clarinet, O. M. Rogney, violin, and Wilma Dalton at the piano and a number of "Joy to the World," song books, made a lively evening, closing with Mrs. Emil Retzlaff at the piano and Mr. Rogne with the violin, playing some of the never to be forgotten musical selections.