

every advice was at once followed.
In a talk with Jno. Detwiller he says that the hail took about a twenty five per cent toll off his barley crop. Mrs. Detwiller who has been very ill is improving rather slowly.