

lowing an attack of the grippe.

John Stromme was up from Cooperstown Tuesday to interest a few of the local bowling enthusiasts to go to Fargo next week to compete for some of the prizes in the Northwestern bowling tournament. F. C. Boeckman and Theo. Ethen will join Mr. Stromme and Walt Nelson of Cooperstown, and entries have been made for double and single competition. If these boys roll their average games there is no doubt of their capturing some of the prize money.
