

and W. S. Hess.

News was received here Monday by wire, of the serious illness of Henry Evers, at Reardan, Washington. His sons, John and August, left Monday for Reardan. The senior Mr. Evers is 94 years of age, and owing to his advanced age it is very doubtful whether he recovers from his illness.