

one for both of them.

Ben Ford left yesterday for his home at Larimore, after spending a week here attending to business. Mr. Ford has acquired a half section more of land in the vicinity of Ryder which he intends to make into a stock farm. He will, however, continue to make Larimore his home, as he is well satisfied with the town as a place to live.