

A farewell reception of Miss Mina Gjelhaug, assistant pastor of the Methodist church, was tendered her last evening in the parlors of the church. Rev. Anderson gave an address of appreciation of the work of the young lady here the last five months and Miss Gjelhaug responded briefly. Solos were given by Mary Whidden and Howard Anderson and readings by Mrs. Thos. Hatten and Mrs. Roy Wolfer. The event was made very pleasant to all concerned. Miss Gjelhaug was presented with a gold coin from the ladies of the church. She leaves Monday to visit her parents near Crookston, Minn., and then returns to the state normal school at Valley City for summer school work preparatory to leaving for her new field of missionary work in South America.—James-town Capital.
