

While playing on the school grounds last Friday, young Leonard Gorthy was hit across the mouth with a baseball bat, knocking out one tooth and loosening some others, and cutting a gash into his cheek. Dr. Truscott was called and dressed the wound.

W. D. Ehlers has advised the